National Medical Laboratory Professionals Week, April 24-30, 2016, is the week for our country to recognize the diagnostic contributions of lab testing and to celebrate the outstanding performance of all Medical Laboratory Professionals. JVHL would like to thank each and every Laboratory Professional for their contributions to healthcare!

Laboratorians get results by solving patient cases one test at a time.